

QUOGUE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Pond House Museum

OPEN Saturday, 10am to 12pm, and by appointment

114 Jessup Avenue

View exhibitions on two floors highlighting Quogue's 350-plus year history.

Cozy up in the Reading Room filled with books about Long Island and Quogue history; binders with newspaper and magazine articles about Quogue, 1975-2006, and early 20th-century postcards.

Pick Up a Walking Tour Map of Historic Jessup Avenue, Quogue's bustling commercial, cultural, and civic center (on the front door).

1822 One-Room Schoolhouse

Celebrating 200 Years!

OPEN during Quogue Library hours

90 Quogue Street

Exhibition on View

An 1868 School Day with Schoolmistress Miss Lizabeth Griffing.

And bring the kids for a step back in time, to sit at reproduction 19th century desks and write on slates.
