Seasonal Use Dwelling Unit Addendum

Name of owner(s): _____

Address of property to be rented: _____

NY State law (General Obligations Law Section 7-108) generally prohibits deposits and advances greater than one month's rent. An exception exists for "seasonal use dwelling units."

To qualify as a "seasonal use dwelling unit," the leased premises must meet all of the following conditions:

1. The lease must expressly state that: (a) the dwelling unit is registered with the Village of Quogue as a "seasonal use dwelling unit," (b) the occupancy of a tenant is for seasonal use only not to exceed 120 days, and (c) the tenant has a primary residence to return to and set forth the address of such primary residence;
 2. The premises must be registered with the Village of Quogue as a "seasonal use dwelling unit;" and
 3. Such premises are not rented as a "seasonal use dwelling unit" for more than 120 days during each calendar year.
- Do the premises described in the accompanying Rental License Application located at the address set forth above qualify by as a "seasonal use dwelling unit?" Yes / No (circle one)
 - Does the owner wish to register the premises as a "seasonal use dwelling unit?" Yes / No (circle one)
 - Note that the NY State law referred to above requires the Village of Quogue to revoke the seasonal use dwelling unit registration of any dwelling unit that does not adhere to the conditions described above.

Signature of owner(s): _____
